Please join us for the premier of "Blazing a New Trail"--the documentary of one man's miraculous recovery, under the unwavering care of Katsuko Yamamoto, from Locked-In-Syndrome (LIS). Despite his doctor's diagnosis that he would never regain consciousness, he is now able to communicate with the aid of electronic devices. Both Katsuko Yamamoto and the film's director, Yasuko Iwasaki, will be joining us. The main program starts at 2:00pm. However, we will also be hosting a special showing, at 12:15, of "The Universal Principle"; a documentary of the insights gained by Katsuko Yamamoto through her work with special education children. Seating is limited so please reserve early.
