

Finding your Inner Power: Lessons from Tempu Nakamura

Guest Speaker

Ryohei Kamiwatari

Presented with simultaneous English translation

Date: Saturday
Dec. 9th, 2006

Program: 10:00-12:00

Cost: $10

Lunch Reception : 12:30-2:30

Cost:
$15 Pre-registered
$25 After RSVP deadline

RSVP deadline: 11/22/2006

Location:
East-West Center
Imin Center at Jefferson Hall
1777 East-West Road
University of Hawaii at Manoa

Parking:
$3.00—UH upper campus.
Please pay at guard kiosk on East-West Road or Maile Way

Contact Info:
Phone: 808-457-1740
E-mail:
info@honolulufoundation.org

Photo: Courtesy of Nakamura Tempu Foundation

Tempu Nakamura [1876-1968] was one of the preeminent thinkers of modern Japan. Son of a Samurai, a secret agent during the Sino-Japanese and Russo-Japanese Wars, a medical student at Columbia University, a student of guru Kaliapa, a body guard of Sun Yat-sen, and teacher... these descriptions only touch upon the life of Tempu Nakamura who developed the philosophy of Shin-shin Toitsu. His life philosophy has influenced many, including prominent leaders, such as former Prime Minister Takashi Hara, and John D. Rockefeller III.

Learn how one life can influence so many, including yours.

Ryohei Kamiwatari is the author of more than twenty books, including three books about Tempu Nakamura that became critically-acclaimed best-sellers in Japan. After a near-death experience, he realized that each of us has a higher purpose in life, and in more than 300 public appearances a year, he shares his vision of this higher purpose. In this lecture, Mr. Kamiwatari will discuss his thoughts on the essence of Tempu Philosophy, why it is so intriguing, and how it has profoundly affected his own life.

Sponsored by:

Registration Form: Finding your Inner Power: Lessons from Tempu Nakamura

Please send the registration form and check payable to:

Honolulu Foundation
P. O. Box 283330
Honolulu, HI 96828

Name(s) _____

Address _____

Number of Participants : Program () Lunch ()

Phone _____

E-mail _____