

Synthesizer Performer
Naoki Nishimura • Charity Peace Concert
“Composition for Hawaii”
October 21st, 2008 at 7:00 pm

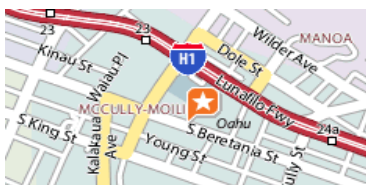

The Parish Hall, Central Union Church
Admission is Free

We cordially invite you to attend Naoki Nishimura’s synthesizer performance at the Parish Hall, Central Union Church, on October 21st, 2008. Mr. Nishimura is renowned for his beautiful, meditative melodies promoting peace, and has performed around the world including at New York City’s Carnegie Hall, the United Nations, as well as for Pope John Paul II in Vatican City.

Poster of UNESCO Peace concert, 2001

Mr. Nishimura also performed his first overseas concert at the Ovis Auditorium at the University of Hawaii in November 1989. In 2007, at the request of Ehime Kenjinkai, he performed the musical prayer at the 7th memorial of the Ehime Maru tragedy in Honolulu.

1660 S. Beretania St, Honolulu, HI

Parking: Central Union Church, Front Lawn.

Due to limited seating, for tickets in advance, please mail your order and contact phone number with a stamped self-addressed envelope by Oct 11th.

Honolulu Foundation
P.O.Box 283330
Honolulu, HI 96828
Tel: 808-475-1740
info@honolulufoundation.org