

Hatsume Sato

Presidency of “Ischia in the Forest” House of Rest and relief

Sunday, November 16th, 2008
Queen Lili`uokalani Center, Room #412
University of Hawai`i at Manoa

Since 1992, Hatsume Sato presides a space called “Ischia in the Forest” in the foot of Mt. Iwaki in Aomori, in northern part of Japan . This is the place for healing for exhausted mind of people by sharing the pain among people, and also where accepts anyone who have troubles, problems, or distress. As of today, Ms. Sato provides food, and nestles to people who visit her to invoke her. She was awarded for American International Soroptimist society prize, International Soroptimist Female Volunteer Prize etc. due to her dedication to social welfare activities and to the community based longtime education.

Please come join us to taste the prayer of Hatsume’s rice ball that conveys the relevance of life.

・ ・ Transferring the life ・ ・

In the desire of the ingredient of food as “Life” instead of “Thing”, the method of cooking becomes altered.

Seats are limited (50 seats).

Please send the number of participants, contact name and telephone number to us by 11/10, 2008 via e-mail or mail. It will be closed upon full strength.

Honolulu Foundation
P. O. Box 283330
Honolulu, HI 96828
Tel: 808-475-1740
Email: info@honolulufoundation.org

